

Brian J. Babcock

370 East South Temple, 4th Floor, SLC, UT 84111

801-971-1285

brian@babcockscott.com

Education

Brigham Young University
Provo, Utah

Bachelor Science (1989)
Major: Construction Management
J. Reuben Clark Law School – Juris Doctorate (1992)

Professional Experience

Babcock Scott & Babcock, P.C. (Partner) 2004 – Present

- Litigator with a practice concentrated in general commercial business disputes with a focus on the construction industry. Consulted with various companies regarding their business formations, operations and sale of the business.
- Litigation and trial work in federal and state courts, mediations, and arbitrations.
- Acting as mediator and arbitrator in commercial business, construction and real estate disputes privately and with American Arbitration Association.
- Managing Partner of firm over operations and finance.

Salt Lake Community College (Adjunct Professor) 2015 – 2019

- Adjunct Professor of the Construction Law Class. Construction Management Department of Salt Lake Community College – Redwood Road Campus

Babcock Bostwick Scott Crawley & Price, P.C. (Partner) 1995 – 2004

- Litigator with a practice concentrated in general commercial business disputes with a focus on the construction industry.
- Litigation and trial work in federal and state courts, mediations, and arbitrations.

Walstad & Babcock, P.C. (Associate) 1992 - 1995

- Litigator with a practice concentrated in general commercial business disputes with a focus on the construction industry.
- Litigation and trial work in federal and state courts, mediations, and arbitrations.

Extracurricular Experience and Interests

Former Judge Pro-Tem, Third Judicial District Court, State of Utah

- Acted as Small Claims Judge in the Salt Lake Department for over 15 years presiding over hundreds of cases.

Soccer

Utah Youth Soccer Association

- Vice-President (2014 to Present)
- Disciplinary Chair (2008 to 2014)

Coaching

- USSF National D License
- Head or Assistant Coach for over 20 years for both girls and boys
 - Three Utah State Cup Champions

Referee

- Grade 8 Certification (License Expired)